

14 September 2005

CEO of IFCA Is Technopreneur of the Year

KEN YONG, CEO of IFCA MSC Berhad Wins Technopreneur of the Year 2005

IFCA MSC Berhad (IFCA) received another industry accolade in a week when its CEO & Chairman, Ken Yong was crowned Technopreneur of the Year at the prestigious PIKOM-Computimes ICT Awards 2005 awards ceremony presented by YB Dato' Sri Dr Jamaludin Jarjis, Minister of Science, Technology and Innovation Malaysia.

The PIKOM-Computimes ICT Awards is an annual awards program that acknowledges utmost appreciation and to give due credit and recognition to ICT industry leaders, ICT companies, as well as local hardware, software and content developers who excel in the industry.

Ken Yong, the CEO & Chairman of IFCA, was awarded Technopreneur of the Year in recognition of his entrepreneurial qualities as well as his industry-leading contribution and impetus to the advancement of Malaysia's ICT Industry.

The Technopreneur of the Year award is presented to the most outstanding Malaysian ICT entrepreneur, evaluated based on the individuals' track record in establishing and playing a significant role in growing the company to a respectable level of success in the last three years.

Kudos to Ken!